WCOSO SRO HONORED WITH NATIONAL AWARD

A Williamson County Sheriff's Office Deputy was honored in Washington, D.C. for saving a child's life at Bethesda Elementary where he is the School Resource Officer. The National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO) presented its Meritorious Service Award to Deputy Kevin Teague at the NASRO Safe School Conference during an award luncheon in late July.

Deputy Teague is credited with saving the life of a child who was choking during lunch at his school cafeteria. When he saw the child in distress, unable to breathe or talk, he quickly performed the Heimlich maneuver and dislodged food from the child's throat.

Deputy Teague is assigned to the Crime Prevention Division as an SRO. He joined the WCOSO last December following a distinguished career of 27 years in law enforcement at the Franklin Police Department.
