WCSCO Deputies Graduates from TLETA

Congratulations to three Williamson County Sheriff's Office deputies who graduated from the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy in Donelson in June. Deputy Mitch Flournoy, Patrol Division, Deputy Kasondra Johnson, Court Services Division, and Deputy Alvin Collins, Patrol Division received their diplomas after completing 12 weeks of Basic Police School.

The WCSCO deputies join the ranks of thousands of law enforcement officers who have studied at TLETA during its 50 years.
