WCOSO Deputies Graduates from TLETA

Congratulations to two Williamson County Sheriff's Office Deputies who graduated from the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy in Donelson this month. Deputy Meghan Smith and Corporal Clay Staton received their diplomas after completing 12 weeks of Basic Police School. Deputy Smith is assigned to Court Services and Corporal Staton is assigned to the Patrol Division.

The Deputies join the ranks of thousands of law enforcement officers who have studied at TLETA during its 50 years.
